HORDERN PAVILION SINCE 1924

The Hordern Pavilion is an iconic historical building and forms an integral part of the Moore Park precinct. Ideally situated on the fringe of Sydney's CBD, this unique venue is on the main route to Sydney's airport and is easily accessible by public and private transport. It is a versatile and boutique venue with the ability to hold a vast array of events. Beyond its legacy as the home of Australian rock 'n' roll, this iconic venue has hosted many of Sydney's most prestigious events, including the ARIAs, AACTA, and AFI Awards. It has also welcomed major charity occasions such as the Cure Brain Cancer Gala and the Steve Waugh Foundation launch. In addition, the venue has been the setting for sporting celebrations like the FIFA World Congress and Dally M Awards, as well as corporate events and product launches.
